Bryant Service Club:

I'm very sorry to have neglected writing in so long but things up this way have been rather busy. Things at the office are here are moving fast

I received your gift while on maneuvers hence the length of time before replying.

Thanks an awful lot, I appreciate it very much and at that time it was very handy.

Up here, everybody seems surprised to see me get those gifts so I guess old Bryant is one of the very few doing so much for us.

P.S. Awfully sorry about the writing but here in the field without lights it is pretty difficult.
